Felipe Jesus Consalvos 1891 – 1960 (Cuba)

Biography

A self-appointed "artist, healer, and man," and former tobacco-roller, Felipe Jesus Consalvos extrapolated the vernacular tradition of cigar-band collage to a highly sophisticated, inimitable practice. Born near Havana in 1891 and eventually emigrating to Miami in the early 1900s, Consalvos settled in New York and, finally, Philadelphia, where he passed away in the mid-1960s. It was at a Philadelphia car-boot sale in the early 1980s where his obsessively large body of work was rediscovered posthumously; approximately 850 surviving collages on paper, found photographs, musical instruments, furniture, and other unexpected surfaces.

Consalvos merges the biting socio-political satire and absurdist impulse of Dadaists like Max Ernst, Hannah Höch and Kurt Schwitters with the arcane mysticism of Bruce Conner and Joseph Cornell. Consalvos therefore parallels and foreshadows certain contemporaneous developments in Futurist, Pop collage, Surrealist, design, and even poetry. Preferring to leave his works untitled and undated, one can only estimate that Consalvos created his collages between 1920 and the late 1960s—during the very time in art history that the radical juxtaposition of images were taken to new levels of sophistication.

THE GALLERY OF EVERYTHING www.gallevery.com // @gallevery

The Gallery of Everything is a commercial space for non-academic artists, private artmakers and other alternative creators.

An initiative of The Museum of Everything, the gallery engages with a wide network of institutions, artists and curators to place material into major private and public collections. The gallery's roster includes known historical master artists, as well as newly discovered authors. Events include group and solo exhibitions, talks, readings and happenings.

Proceeds from The Gallery of Everything help support The Museum of Everything, a registered UK charity and non-profit organisation, dedicated to the advancement, integration and celebration of artists and makers beyond the cultural mainstream.

THE MUSEUM OF EVERYTHING www.musevery.com // @musevery

The Museum of Everything opened in London in 2009 and has welcomed over a million visitors to its large-scale installations in Britain, Europe, Russia, America and Australia.

As the UK's leading advocate for non-academic and private art-making, the museum functions as an international exhibitor, archive and activist, collaborating with artists, curators, writers and institutions. These include Tate Modern (UK), Hayward Gallery (UK), Pinacoteca Agnelli (Italy), Kunsthal Rotterdam (Holland) and Garage (Russia).

The Museum of Everything is a lobbyist for the inclusion and display of all forms of noncanonical art. In 2013 it partnered with the 55th Venice Biennale, during which it was profiled by the BBC in Turning the Art World Inside Out. The museum is primarily known for its immersive installations, most recently presented at Mona in Australia in 2017/18.
